

PROF PIUS: OH WHY? (TRIBUTE SONG)

VERSE 1

Professor Pius Adesanmi
I wish I had met you before
You were a blessing
You were a great man
You had a kind heart
A king who became a servant
You were a king who came to serve
Oh you were a great mind
A blessing to our time
Why, oh why
I wish death wasn't so cruel

PRE CHORUS

Like a candle in the wind
You were blown away
But this candle was still burning
We still needed your light, oh why?

CHORUS

Death you've won
You've taken someone great from us
You will live in our hearts till the end of time
Death you've won
You've taken someone great from us
Oh why, oh why, oh why

VERSE 2

Oh we know that men were born to die
But we won't, we can't stop to cry
You had so much to offer
You came you saw you conquered
Now it's time for you to rest in peace
You came and you walked the sands of time
You gave, put your everything on the line
Now your family will miss you, Nigeria will miss you, Africa will miss you, Canada will miss you,
Now your protégés will miss you, all the scholars will miss you, the whole world will miss you
We thought you'd spend more time with us

PRE CHORUS

But like a candle in the wind
You were blown away

But this candle was still burning
We still needed your light oh why

REFRAIN

You may not be with us anymore,
But your good works will live on forever
Yes you are gone, but you will live on
In our hearts forever (3x)

Oh oh oh oh oh; oh oh oh oh oh

VERSE 3

Prof. Pius Adesanmi we thank God for the life you lived
We cannot question Him; it's He who takes and He who gives
But we are grateful for the time that we spent with you
Oh grateful for the impact you made on us
If money could buy you back, we will spend it all
But we cannot buy you back, we leave it to God

Like a candle in the wind
You were blown away
But this candle was still burning
We still needed your light oh why

CHORUS

Death you've won
You've taken someone great from us
You will live in our hearts till the end of time
Death you've won
You've taken someone great from us
Oh why, oh why, oh why

SPOKEN WORD

Great men don't die
They are forever immortalized
Coz when they are long gone
Their works live on
Prof. Pius Adebola Adesanmi
You were a great man
And your works will forever be remembered
In the hearts of men

Death you've won
you've taken someone great from us

You will live in our hearts till the end of time

Death you've won

You've taken someone great from us

Oh why, oh why, oh why
